

We're Looking for Women Who Earned the Highest Awards in Girl Scouting

In 2016, Girl Scouts nationwide will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the highest awards in Girl Scouting:

Golden Eagle of Merit, Golden Eaglet, Curved Bar, First Class, and the Girl Scout Gold Award

As a Highest Award recipient, you're part of an elite group of women, and we'd like to invite you to share your story.

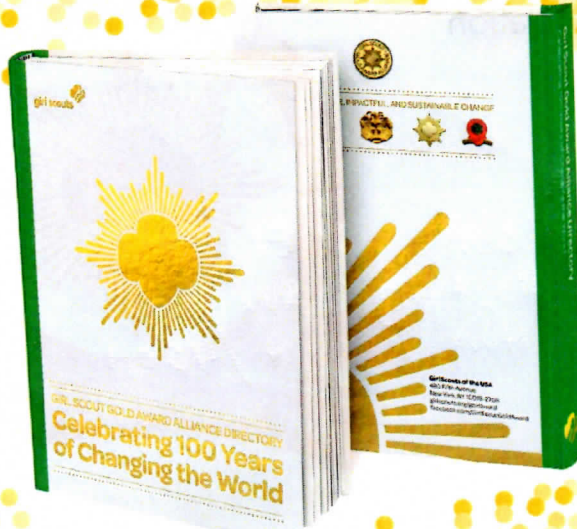

Starting in 1916, the best and brightest undertook projects that improved their communities—and the world. And nearly 100 years later, the Gold Award continues to inspire girls to find the greatness inside themselves and share their ideas and passions with their communities.

Join Girl Scouts of Western Ohio Alumnae Association at gswo.org/gold100 today to be a part of Herstory! Help plan the celebration and contact Laura Ford-Harris, Development Manager at laurafordharris@gswo.org or 1.888.350.5090.

Celebration plans are in the works!

LFH:bd/05-1390-01

Share
Your Story

CONGRATULATIONS! You're invited to be part of something BIG—the upcoming Girl Scout Gold Award Alliance Directory Centennial Edition!

This historic publication celebrates the thousands of inspiring Girl Scout alumna who, over the last 100 years, have used their extraordinary courage, vision and kindness to rally communities and take action to make the world a better place.

Take action today! Share your Gold Award (previously known as the Golden Eagle of Merit, Golden Eaglet, Curved Bar, and First Class) story and inspire future generations of girls to carry on your tradition of exceptional service.

It's easy. Just call our publication partner, Harris Connect, to verify your information and learn how to submit your story for inclusion in the directory. It's going to be EPIC!

CALL TODAY – TOLL FREE 866-770-3079

Monday-Friday, 8am to 10pm (ET)